

After Thoughts

Sally McCallum

Library of Congress

smcc@loc.gov

What I want to review

- Process
- People
- German/Austrian contributions

Process

- January 2006 – San Antonio
  - City of the Alamo
  - Introduction to the German/Austrian MAB to MARC migration project
- June 2006 – New Orleans
  - First conference in the city since Hurricane Katrina
  - Mapping of elements
  - Translation of MARC concise
- January 2007 – Seattle
  - New Public Library had just opened
  - Discussion Paper 2007-01

Process

- June 2007 - Washington, DC
  - Proposal 2007-06 – Required changes approved
  - Dewey Discussion Paper 2007-01
  - Celebration dinner

- January 2008 – Philadelphia
  - Signing of the Declaration of Independence (232 years earlier)
  - Dewey Proposal 2008-01 – Required changes approved

People

- Reinhold Heuvelmann – Deutsche Nationalbibliothek
- Beate Rusch – KOBV
- Adrian Nolte – Statbibliothek Essen
- Cornelia Katz – Bibliothekservice Zentrum Baden-Wuerttemberg
- Christel Hengel – Deutsche Nationalbibliothek

German contributions

- Authority record numbers in heading and other fields
- Bibliographic record links for set records
- Multivolume monograph identification
- Types for uncontrolled subjects

German contributions

- Geographic added entry
- Cancelled/invalid National Bibliographic Number
- Replacement record field
- Normalized dates and sequential designations for serials

Participation

- June 2008 – Anaheim, California
  - German/Austrian representative joined the MARC Advisory Committee
  - First Proposals and Discussion Papers from the RDA-MARC Committee

- January 2008 – Denver
  - German/Austrian representative joined the RDA-MARC Committee

And next

- Which leads into the next presentations
  - Tom Delsey
  - Margaret Stewart
- discussing
  - RDA in a MARC environment

- Thanks